BRIEF PROFILE OF MS. ANNA KAY WARRINGTON (DIN: 07377732)

Coming with extensive international exposure, Ms. Anna Kay Warrington is an accomplished sustainability advisor and program director for the Forum for the Future. Her academic background includes a BSc. Hons. in Business Administration from the University of Bath and an M.A. in Sustainable Business from the University of Leeds.

She began her career with British Airways, where she helped implement world's first cross-border, multi-currency smart card payment system. Following this, she joined the Office of Government Commerce, where she advised on change management for UK central government departments. Her passion for sustainability led her to Fundación ACUDE in Argentina, where she facilitated community dialogue on afforestation.

In 2007, Ms. Anna Kay Warrington joined Forum for the Future in London as a Sustainability Advisor, progressively taking on more significant roles. By 2015, she became the Managing Director of Forum for the Future India Pvt Ltd. Her leadership here was instrumental in building a high-performing team and securing multi-year project funding in sustainable energy and regenerative agriculture areas. Anna directed strategic initiatives with major organizations, including Royal Enfield, Aditya Birla Group, and JSW, contributing to their sustainability efforts.

Ms. Anna Kay Warrington's expertise spans systems change, sustainability strategy, futures and foresight, and collaborative platform design. She has a solid track record in project management, team leadership, and strategic relationship management across various industries, including built environment, FMCG, and pharmaceuticals.

Beyond her professional achievements, Anna is passionate about ecological restoration and is an experienced dive master. She enjoys facilitating community engagement through creative media and participatory events, fostering a deep appreciation for sustainable practices.
